

The opportunity board is a large board full of blank squares. The board is set up at our golf tournament registration area, out on the golf course during the day and at our post tournament reception. Charity Angel's sell each of the squares for a set price. Prizes can include rounds of golf at various courses, vacation trips, staycations, entertainment packages (concerts/sporting events), and exclusive wine packages. Winners are announced at the awards dinner.